

English for the Summer Holiday

If you don't do any English during the holiday, it will gradually disappear...
To help you maintain your level and avoid a rather unpleasant shock in September, here are some useful websites:

<http://www.academie-en-ligne.fr/Matieres.aspx?MATIERE=Anglais>

<http://www.britishcouncil.org/learnenglish-central-grammar-archive.htm>

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise/>

<http://www.english-4u.de/>

A little extra advice:

Read as much as you can, as often as you can

Listen to English music and learn the words

Watch films in English (with or without English subtitles)

Surf on English websites

Write your e-mails / MSN / Facebook messages in English

Practice writing poems, short stories or keep your diary in English over the summer

To Conclude:

It's always better to do a little often, than often do little ... even if in the summer it is rather nice to do as little as possible...because it's by doing a little very often that we make the most progress.

"Make the most of your summer holiday!"